— SOUTH CAROLINA —

ROARING FORWARD

73RD ANNUAL
STATE CONFERENCE

OFFICIAL GUIDE

OCTOBER 15-17, 2026 | MYRTLE BEACH, SC

DESIGNED BY SEA LEVEL SOCIAL

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Welcome to our conference!

It is an honor to gather with so many people who share a deep commitment to children and their well-being. Thank you for the heart, passion, and care you bring to your work every day.

The meals we provide nourish more than bodies. They give children energy to learn, grow, dream, and thrive. Each meal served is an opportunity to make a difference—and together, the difference we make is powerful.

I hope this conference gives you new ideas, meaningful connections, and renewed inspiration for the important work ahead.

Thank you for all you do for children, for your communities, and for one another. Your work matters. Your heart matters. And the children we serve are better because of you.

With gratitude and appreciation,

Audra Terry '26-'27 SNA of SC
President

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 73rd Annual SNA of SC State Conference and to our Roaring 20's celebration as we Roar Forward into the future of school nutrition!

This year's conference is more than three days of training, networking, and professional development—it is an opportunity to celebrate where we have been, embrace where we are going, and discover what is possible when we move forward together.

From the speakeasy to the main stage, we have packed this conference with opportunities to learn something new, share ideas, build connections, and take practical strategies back to our districts and cafeterias. Whether you are here to sharpen your leadership skills, discover new ways to increase participation, explore innovative ideas, or simply reconnect with colleagues from across South Carolina, we hope you find something that inspires you.

So, put on your pearls, fedoras, flapper fringe, and finest Roaring 20's attire—and get ready for a roaring good time!

Thank you for being part of SNA of SC and for the important work you do every day to nourish, support, and serve the students of South Carolina.

Let's learn. Let's connect. Let's celebrate. And most importantly—let's ROAR FORWARD together!

With excitement,

Brittney Linton

SNA of SC President-Elect

ANNUAL Wellness Walk

Step away from the sessions and refresh your mind and body with a guided wellness walk to the beautiful shore of Myrtle Beach. Enjoy the energizing ocean breeze as we walk to the water's edge, helping reduce stress, boost focus, and connect with fellow attendees. Let's walk, breathe, and recharge together by the ocean!

INDUCTEES

FAYE JARWORKSI

Ms. Jarworks's career in the Child Nutrition Programs began 39 years ago as an Operator and she has worked her way up to Field Supervisor in the Berkeley County School Food Service District Office. Faye has maintained National SNA Certification for 10 years and continues to grow professionally by attending SNA of SC conferences, training sessions, and meetings. Her nominees noted that for the past 39 years, Faye has been diligent and consistent in giving her time, knowledge, and talents to the Child Nutrition Program.

VALERIE MOUZON

Mrs. Mouzon has dedicated 42 years in Child Nutrition Programs. Her career began as an Assistant Manager, then Manager, and then she served as Director in Florence School District 3 and Williamsburg County. She has served as Secretary on the SNA of SC Board and participated in the various conferences, meetings, and trainings. Valerie has consistently demonstrated leadership and commitment, with a desire to improve Child Nutrition in her districts and around the state.

PEGGY LUTHER

Ms. Luther began her career in Child Nutrition over 35 years ago. She became Area Director over 20 years ago for Chartwells and has provided leadership and support for over 24 Food Service Directors throughout the state. She had 31 elementary schools to receive the HealthierUS School Challenge Award. She has provided classes for the SNA of SC Annual Conference and supported several SNA of SC Scholarship Golf Tournaments.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 2026-2027 DR. VIVIAN B. PILANT

Scholarship Recipients

MCKENZIE BOLTON is the daughter of Cynthia Bolton, a Field Supervisor/Training Manager in Greenwood District 50. McKenzie is an upcoming sophomore at Lander University where she is pursuing a degree in biology with an emphasis in genetics, and after completing her first year, she plans to add minors in chemistry and forensic science. By building a strong foundation across multiple scientific disciplines, McKenzie believes this will allow her to explore different areas of interest and ultimately discover the field in which she hopes to specialize.

ALEXANDRA GOODWIN is the daughter of Misha Lawyer, RD, the Director of Food Services in Kershaw County School District. Alexandra is a 2026 graduate of A. C. Flora High School in Columbia. She is now a Freshman at Clemson University, where she was directly admitted into the Nursing Program. Through this course, she will gain a strong foundation in health, wellness, and patient care while learning how nutrition impacts learning, development, and long-term well-being. She hopes to combine nursing with specialized training in nutrition to help improve community health programs.

ANNA STABLER is the daughter of Amy Stabler, Director of Food Services in Greenwood School District 50. Anna is a 2026 graduate of Greenwood High School in Greenwood. She is a Freshman at Mississippi State University and plans to major in Animal and Dairy Sciences. Her lifelong dream is to become a veterinarian and eventually open her own clinic.

MADELYN STONE is the daughter of Heather Stone, SNS, a Food Service Field Supervisor in the Horry County Schools District Office. Madelyn is in her second year at the University of South Carolina where she is maintaining strong grades and is progressing through her bachelor's degree program ahead of schedule. She plans to receive her Bachelors in Retail Management/Fashion Innovation.

Congratulations

TO THIS YEAR'S SCHOOL NUTRITION ASSOCIATION
OF SOUTH CAROLINA STATE WINNERS!

DIRECTOR OF THE YEAR Cindy Jacobs

Cindy Jacobs has made positive impacts in the program through training programs for all her employees. She gives her employees the opportunity for advancement and "grow" in her district. She has done an outstanding job in marketing her summer feeding program to ensure all families have access to summer meals during the summer when school is not in session. Cindy has built a great relationship with all her vendors to ensure she provides menu items that reflect the culture of her community in Laurens 56. She works with her church with missions and staff from PC College to build strong relationships within her community.

Phyllis Boyd MANAGER OF THE YEAR

Over her last 10 years of career in school food service, Phyllis has taken time to learn students' names, dietary needs, and preferences, ensuring each child receives a safe and enjoyable meal. Her calm approach has reassured teachers and administrators during busy service times, demonstrating reliability, professionalism, and a deep commitment to customer satisfaction. Phyllis consistently develops creative, student-centered recipes that balance nutrition guidelines with flavors students love.

STATE AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

SNA of SC has been awarded the National State Award of Excellence for large school districts from the National SNA. SNA of SC has demonstrated extraordinary leadership by successfully implementing strategies that advance school nutrition programs in their state and who made the extra effort in achieving excellence in each of SNA's four Strategic Goals.
